

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

Would you want to sit on a plane next to someone who is talking on their cell phone? Do you care to hear the intimate details of their private life? How long could you stand this, with no way to escape?

I am writing to express severe concerns about the FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight. This should be thrown out the window right now!

People who need to "contact people on the ground" can wait until they're on the ground JUST LIKE THE REST OF US. People who want to chat with friends can wait for a private time, JUST LIKE THE REST OF US. How about some common courtesy and consideration?

Please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Leslie Hunten
